Mayor's Report:

Mayor David Jackson reported that the seven SRO positions previously approved by the county commission to be in Marion County schools have been filled. Ten new patrol cars have been ordered for the officers. Until all cars have been delivered some officers may travel by private cars.

Sequatchie Valley Bike Trail is in the planning stages for a three county area. The goal is to add to our tourism draw as well as to provide a trail for local bike riders.

County Commission has passed and the state comptroller's office has approved the county budget for the coming fiscal year with no property tax increase.

The new building at Chattanooga State has been completed. The county has received an insurance settlement amount of $813,000 as a result of fire at the "old" Chattanooga State building on Battle Creek Rd. The plan is for the county to sell that building.

Mayor Jackson commented that the Marion County Farmer's Market is open for business to local farmers with locally grown produce. There is a $10 registration fee.

Mayor Jackson cautioned about the dangers of canoeing or kayaking near Ketner's Mill. Sadly, a gentleman lost his life there this weekend. We also remember the anniversary of three previous drownings there in July 2015. Mayor Jackson said that he and others are working with the owner of the mill to determine how to increase safety there.

Mayor Jackson informed us that there is a new manager at Marion County Park.

Mayor Jackson is looking into the possibility of an "Express Y" or "Y-Camp" similar to those in operation in Ooltewah, Cleveland and Chattanooga.

Miscellaneous

During sharing time, Shelby Potterfield gave an update on the progress of SVEConnect. It has begun with test cases in a few homes in South Pittsburg. SVEC is working on additional state grants to expedite broad band service to the Griffith Creek, Sequatchie Mountain, South Pittsburg Mountain/Orme, and Battle Creek/Sweetens Cove/Fish Trap.

Garret Faugot was pleased to announce that a trade mark for SOCUMO is in the process of being approved. He also encouraged folks to attend the 59th Annual Monteagle Mountain Market for Arts and Crafts which will be July 28th and 29th.

Brett Del Balso announced that every Saturday at 9:00 AM CDT there is a Mountain Goat Trail parkrun in Sewanee. It is a free 5k timed run.

Mayor Jackson encouraged folks to attend Blue Grass Underground in Pelham. He went recently and thought it was great!

Announcements

Upcoming events were listed on the back of the agenda.

Next chamber coffee is scheduled for August 14th and is being hosted by City of Whitwell and Orena Humphreys Library at the Coal Miner's Museum.

Next monthly board meeting will be September 20, 2018 at noon at the Western Sizzlin.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
